William Fitch Asks Governor Bradley to Let Him Practice Law.

An unusual petition was presented to Governor Bradley a few days ago.

William L. Fitch, an attorney of Bellevue, who, according to his petition, was recently disbarred for drunkenness, asked the Governor to restore to him the privilege of practicing in the Courts of this State.

The petition was read.

This is the first petition of this character that has been presented to Governor Bradley during his term, and no similar one is on file in the Executive archives.

Mr. Fitch was at one time a promising attorney at Vaneoburg.

And it came to pass that after he had advertised his goods in THE LEDGER there came unto him great multitudes from Washington, Sardis, Maysville, Mayslick, Germantown, Reckerville, Orangeburg, and all the region round about Maysville, even to the Lewis and Fleming county line, and did buy of him. And when his competitors saw it they marvelled among themselves, saying: "How be it that this man is busy while we loaf about our doors?" And he spake unto them, saying: "Verily, verily, I say unto you in this last age of push and rush it is easier for a camel to enter the eye of a needle than it is for a business man to flourish in Maysville without advertising."
